James "Butch" Murphy

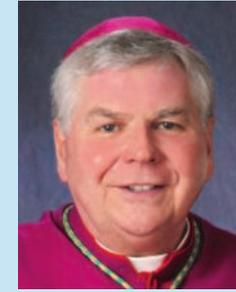

James "Butch" Murphy is the founder and president of Vera Cruz Communications.

James was born and raised in Michigan, and with all his travels and experiences, has always called Michigan home. While still a senior in high school, James made a decision to surrender the rest of his life to Christ. That decision has had a major impact on the path of his life thus far.

James's interest in the world has found him prospecting in Alaska, doing archaeological research in Central and South America, and trekking around the world. He has held many jobs in his life; and on one occasion, he even served as a bodyguard for Mother Theresa. He has been a guest on the 700 Club, the EWTN network, and has helped create videos for national broadcasts.

In 1989 James took up a cross on a journey that would change his life forever. He walked across the state of Michigan carrying a 6-foot cross evangelizing and praying for our state. His pilgrimage didn't stop there; and in 1992, he journeyed on foot 4200 miles—18 months and 14 pairs of shoes later, across the entire United States.

James is also a former chairman and currently a consultant to the National Service Committee for the Catholic Charismatic Renewal. He is a former producer of "The Choices We Face", a weekly television program of Renewal Ministries. He is a past chairman of the Youth Executive Committee for the North American Renewal Service Committee, an ecumenical organization. James is currently a director of the Leadership Formation for the International Catholic Charismatic Renewal Service (ICCRS), whose offices are located at the Vatican in Rome.

The Most Reverend Bishop Paul J. Bradley—Bishop of the Diocese of Kalamazoo

Come celebrate Sunday's Liturgy with the Most Reverend Bishop Paul J. Bradley, bishop of the Diocese of Kalamazoo. Bishop Bradley was installed in June 2009 as the fourth bishop of Kalamazoo. Bishop Bradley was appointed titular bishop of Afufenia and auxiliary bishop of the Diocese of Pittsburgh on December 16, 2004 and was ordained on February 2, 2005. During his first year as bishop for the more than 100,000 Catholics in the nine-county region of the Diocese of Kalamazoo, Bishop Bradley visited all 59 Parishes and 22 Catholic schools in the diocese. He released his first pastoral letter, What I have Heard and Seen in the fall of 2010.

Music Ministry: Bill Richart and Friends

Bill has been blessed to praise Jesus through music, preaching, and healing ministries full-time since 1998. He has ministered in 9 countries and over 30 states, and has released live worship CDs that are used by prayer groups and individuals throughout the world. He is currently Director of Music Ministry at St. Joseph Church in Howell, MI. Bill lives in Highland, MI with his wife Ann Marie and children Will and Faith.

Conference Statement

NOW IS THE TIME to get renewed and filled with the Holy Spirit. Come allow the Spirit to give you the motivation and tools to Proclaim God's Love in every aspect of your life.

"Let us ask the Lord to give each of us a spirit of courage and wisdom, so that in our words and actions, we may proclaim the saving truth of God's love with boldness, humility and coherence."

Pope Benedict XVI, Feb. 3rd, 2013

About The Location

Holy Family Chapel is situated in the heart of the Nazareth Center motherhouse of the Congregation of St. Joseph, Nazareth, MI. Other interesting areas include the motherhouse's relic room, history room, and Holy Stairs, a replica of a similar staircase in Rome. Enjoy the surrounding grounds relaxing in the natural treasures of the Nazareth property and the "Bow in the Clouds" preserve to the north. Take a nature walk or just enjoy the calmness experienced by many first-time visitors.
